

The Perfect Menu

No special event is complete without the perfect menu of savory dishes and tempting treats. At the Newseum, your guests will enjoy the signature seasonal cuisine of Wolfgang Puck Catering.

The Newseum is the exclusive home in Washington, D.C., of Wolfgang Puck's world-famous cuisine. Known as a consummate host, Puck and his personable staff serve up a unique combination of superior food, first-class service and comprehensive catering and event management, making the Newseum one of the most sought-after destinations for gatherings in the nation's capital.

Wolfgang Puck Catering brings the Chef's legendary passion for entertaining to every event. The team will determine your preferences and needs to create the ideal menu for your event. Menus may be customized to your special theme or inspired by your favorite

*"The food was a big 'wow' factor
for our guests."*

— Lisa Wang,
married Aug. 8, 2008,
at the Newseum

dishes. Wolfgang's signature favorites are always a hit — Mini Kobe Cheeseburgers, Tuna Tartare in Sesame Cones and his trademark pizzas.

With unlimited options, your meal will be as unique as the occasion.

Restaurant-quality cuisine is prepared to order in the Newseum's state-of-the-art catering kitchen. Seasoned service professionals will provide friendly, impeccable service; and event managers will assist with every detail, making sure your event runs smoothly from start to finish. All of which means you can relax and enjoy the day, knowing that your guests will be perfectly cared for, comfortable and content.

Whether it's an intimate dinner for 30, a cocktail party for 300 or a gala affair for 3,000, Wolfgang Puck Catering is the finishing touch that transforms your gathering from conventional to exceptional. Let us entertain you with the sophistication and flavor your event deserves. ♡

For more details, contact the Newseum Events Department at 202/292-6100.