Our mission is to increase public understanding of the importance of a free press and the First Amendment. Here, you will experience the story of news, the role of a free press in major events in history and how the core freedoms of the First Amendment — religion, speech, press, assembly and petition — apply to your life.

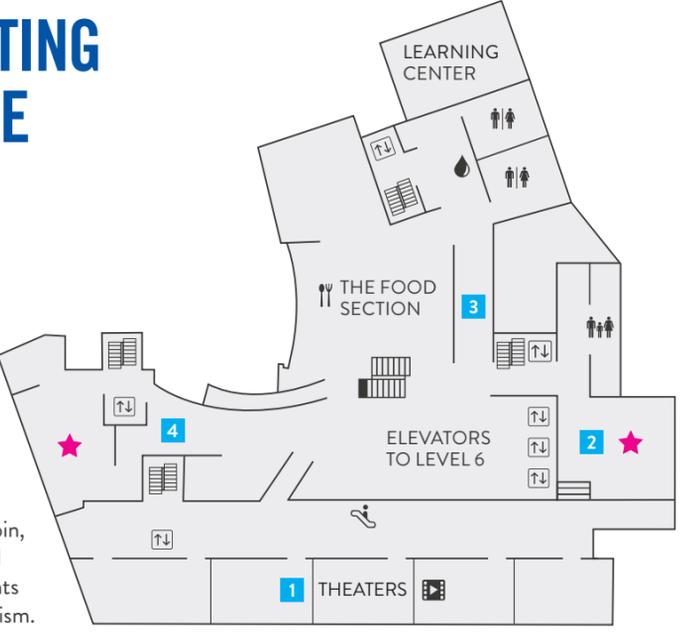

START YOUR VISIT
Begin by taking the escalator in The New York Times Great Hall down to the Hubbard Broadcasting Concourse. The Hearst Orientation theaters will give you an overview of the museum. Once you've visited the exhibits on the concourse, take the glass elevators up to level 6 and then work your way down in a clockwise direction.

Time running short? Simply present today's ticket at the admission desk tomorrow and you'll be able to visit again for free.

We hope your visit leaves you inspired.
